President's Message

Dear friends and members of the Bradford County Historical Society:

As I am finishing my second year as President, I have taken some time to reflect and look back, as a historian always does, at how we have accomplished so much, most of which you will read about in the report from our Curator. The accomplishments we have achieved involve people! I want to thank the following:

THANK YOU ... to the Board of Trustees for their time, devotion, effort, and leadership.

THANK YOU ... to all our volunteers who help at our many events and programs. YOUR SUPPORT IS CRITICAL!!!

THANK YOU ... to our staff that efficiently and effectively conduct the day-to-day operations.

THANK YOU ... to everyone who has donated items for the Museum and the Research Center. We are sometimes overwhelmed with your generosity to share so much for the enjoyment of our visitors and community.

THANK YOU ... to our County and State elected officials who have supported our efforts and secured grant funding for several projects.

THANK YOU ... to the committee members for your involvement and recommendations to the Board of Trustees.

THANK YOU ... to the membership for your confidence in the Society ... that our local history will be documented ... our programs run smoothly and successfully ... and the records of our rich heritage are maintained for future generations.

We have much to accomplish in the years ahead and your continued involvement and support is needed! Lastly, I want to thank each of you for supporting me as President of the Society for the past two years.

J. Kelsey Jones

President

I am pleased to report a long list of accomplishments made at the Bradford County Historical Society this past year.

Exhibits and Displays

The Natural History exhibit cell was completely changed last winter and now offers the visitor new things to see. The exhibits includes various unusual minerals discovered in the county, the Lilley Leaf Collection (which was cleaned and repaired), enlarged photographs of the Spring Lake Woolly Mammoth excavation, and several other items.

Ted Kier also loaned items from the excavation at Spring Lake for a temporary display.

Several other rotating exhibits or displays were created for the 2008 season. One such display in the lobby showcase was a collection of Barclay Mountain artifacts. This was replaced in July with a display celebrating the 75th anniversary of the Works Progress Administration and the Civilian Conservation Corps. A display of CCC photos and other WPA projects were also set up in the Great Room during July. The Rotating Exhibit room featured a display of old toys and a series of four different voting booths used in Bradford County over the years. A display case of newspapers with headlines about presidential elections was also created. Portraits of early presidents of the Bradford County Historical Society were placed on display.

Thanks to a grant from the Allen F. Pierce Foundation, the piano, reed organ, and melodeon in our museum were all restored and are capable of playing again. The piano and reed organ were made in Towanda. A Pianomation computer system was installed inside the piano in order to make the keys play by themselves. This is a wonderful new feature in our museum and will allow us to have "live" music for our events.

Several of our windows received UV protective film to guard the items on display from deterioration. Also, several improvements were made throughout the museum such as stone repointing in the Great Room. These projects were done as a result of a grant received through the efforts of Vince Amoroso and Senator Roger Madigan's office.

Community Outreach and Partnerships

This past year I spoke to the Foster Grandparent group at Towanda Elementary School, the Towanda Lions Club, the Wyalusing Senior Citizens Club, the Canton Senior Citizens Club and at the Bradford County Heritage Association (Farm Museum) annual meeting. Guy Abell and I went to Barclay Mountain with the Men's Group from the Independent Baptist Church in Towanda and gave a tour of part of Laquin, identifying for them the location of the Laquin Baptist Church.

BCHS also participated in the Treasures of the Past exhibit at the Blue Heron Art Gallery in Wyalusing by displaying five framed Barclay Mountain photos that told the story of lumbering on the mountain. I attended the opening reception for this month long exhibit and gave a presentation about the mountain and the new book.

I also began meeting with other museums in Bradford County to get an idea of what type of collections they have and to discuss how the county historical society can work together with them. These organizations so far have included Tioga Point Museum, Wyalusing Valley Museum, Susquehanna River Archaeological Center of Native Indian Studies (SRAC), and the Troy Historical and Genealogical Society. The board also visited SRAC to see their progress and meet with their board.

Storage and Organization

Tremendous reorganization has taken place in our storage rooms to make material more easily accessible and to provide additional storage space. Our deed room had more shelving installed and 500 deed, mortgage and record books were reshelved. Our entire oversize map collection was placed into new map tubes. The remainder of the maps and large certificates were organized into flat files.

A series of 85 new engraved signs were mounted throughout the museum and library. About 60 of these were room numbers to correspond with our Past Perfect inventory system.

The older paper inventory records were also reorganized and centralized in one location for easy retrieval. I compiled a binder of information extracted from the historical society minute books (1870-1960) about items in the historical society collection. All of this information will eventually be entered into our Past Perfect database so that it can be located at a moments notice.

Printing and Publishing

I concluded several months of design work on the Barclay Mountain history book and sent it to the printer. Several thousand dollars were saved by completing all of the book design "in-house." The books were received early in December and were ready for 2007 Christmas sales.

I also designed a new BCHS brochure and applied for Room Tax funding in order to have it printed. We were awarded enough funding to print 3,000 brochures, half of which were distributed to state rest stops in three Pennsylvania counties. The remaining brochures were distributed throughout Bradford County. A second application has been submitted for funding to continue this promotional effort.

A new quarterly newsletter, the Society Journal, was created to keep our members up-to-date on upcoming events, ongoing projects, interesting stories, and a variety of other material.

Programming

We began a series of monthly programs this year known as "Thursday Night at the Museum."

The first step in making our new programming series a success was to upgrade our audio/visual equipment. Thanks to the Hilliard Foundation and the Allen F. Pierce Foundation we now have all of the equipment necessary to present PowerPoint slideshows, videos, music, and voice.

We kicked off the season of programming with a speaker provided through a grant from the Pennsylvania Humanities Council on the life of a Civil War Officer. Other topics presented this year included Spanish Hill, the Civilian Conservation Corps, David Wilmot, Harry Davenport (Canton's actor), and the last program in October will feature letters from Civil War. Almost 200 people have participated in these programs. Several have indicated that it was their first time visiting the museum.

Museum Visitors

The museum opened for the season on May 29th with our summer tour guide, Amanda Rockwood, a student at Millersville University. Besides operating the museum and gift shop, Amanda worked on data entry for us, part of which involved entering the entire BCHS membership list into Past Perfect. Her last day was August 23 and her replacement for the fall, Amy Masters, will finish out the season.

The museum has hosted over 800 visitors since the last annual meeting. These visitors have come from the following states and countries: California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, New York, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Vermont, Maryland, Washington, Florida, South Dakota, Canada, France and England.

Over 500 students have visited the museum during 2008. We have hosted the following group tours: Outstanding Young Woman Program; North Rome Christian School; Union Valley Christian School; St. Agnes Cub Scouts; Keystone College students; Serve, Inc.; Troy first through third grades; St. Agnes School fourth through sixth grades; Northeast Bradford fourth grade; Towanda Elementary Fourth Grade; Canton High School Library Club; Beacon Light ages 7-16; Bradford County Day Care ages 4-9; Canton Red Hatters; and Futures.

Contributions to Our Collection

Several deliveries of county records were received this year from the courthouse including property assessment cards from the assessment office and several other ledgers such as "inmate records" from the Bradford County Poor House (later the Bradford County Manor).

Patricia Chubbuck from Broome County, NY donated a wonderful collection of Laquin photographs and other material. Many of the photos and other items are not found in the Jim Smith collection from which we compiled the Barclay Mountain history book.

DuPont donated a collection of items pertaining to the Patterson Screen Company in Towanda. This helps to round out our collection of DuPont/Patterson Screen Company history. We also received a great collection of material pertaining to the Sylvania company in Towanda.

Peoples State Bank donated the 1889 "cannonball safe" from their New Albany bank branch. It weighs 2,400 lbs. and is a fascinating piece of history.

The following donors have given artifact and manuscript items over the past year: Roger Keagle, David Westcott, Suzanne Tebo Tearno, Ruth Bloss, Leslie Norton, Shirley Mancuso-Zettel, Fred Coolbaugh, Robert Bullard, Rowena Ward, Elma Young family, Terry Peet, Jean Lundy, Carol Rockwell, Donald L. Vanderpool, Henry Farley, Ruth Harvey, Patricia Chubbuck, Victor Hand, Chris Foard, Marland Earnest, Janice Hicks, Mrs. Robert Gauss, Fanna Proper, Marjorie Templeton, Peggy Richards, Jane Carey, Theodore & Maxine Roy, April Tvorak, Carl McMorran, Chris Shaffer, Niles Stroud, Donna Esposito, James Seeley, Vine Crandall, Millie Landis-Coyle, Jill Covenover, Mark and Delores Crane, Sylvia Race, Letha Boughton, Frances Bogaczyk, Julie Them, Joan Phelan, Dale & Kay Fulmer, Phyllis Mulcahy, Frances Clark, Matt Carl, Sue Wheeler, JoAnn Werthner, J. Kelsey Jones, Gerald & Lesley Smith, Linda Lundy, David & Carol Brubaker, James & Marie Walsh, Sylvia Wilson, Marie Parks on behalf of Northeast Bradford School, Norma Maryott on behalf of the Lt. Asa Steven's Chapter of the NSDAR, St. Mary's County Historical Society, Lackawanna County Historical Society, Waterloo Historical Society, Dupont, Peoples State Bank and Towanda Public Library. Loans were received from the Troy Presbyterian Church, Doris Morgan Huegal, and John Watson.

Thanks again to all those who contribute in some way to the success of the Bradford County Historical Society. Your support makes our work possible. I look forward to another eventful year ahead.

The Bradford County Historical Society met on Monday, October, 1, 2007, at the Towanda Gun Club for its annual dinner meeting and program for members and guests. Host and emcee was President J. Kelsey Jones, who welcomed those in attendance, followed by the recitation of Pledge of Allegiance and the invocation by Sister Jean Adams.

After an enjoyable dinner, President Jones thanked the hosting Towanda Gun Club and all the work and effort of Lois Crandell for organizing the event. President Jones, before continuing with the program, which included annual awards and featured speaker, Robert Veleker, former curator of the Bradford County Museum and executive director of the Endless Mountains Heritage Region, as well as president of the board of trustees of French Azilum, Inc.

Minutes of the previous annual meeting, included in the program for the evening, were approved by the membership. Margaret Walsh, chair of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate of trustees for election to three-year terms: Lois Crandell, Troy; Lynn Pliske, Wysox RR 2; Mary Neiley, Wyalusing RR 3; Trudy Bull, Towanda RR 2, and Margaret Walsh, Gillett. The slate of trustees was approved by the membership.

In another order of business, Henry G. Farley, once again accepted appointment as editor of The Settler. President Jones recognized a number of special guests as part of the business meeting. Among those introduced and in attendance were:

Bradford County Commissioners Nancy Schrader, Doug McLinko and Janet Lewis, as well as two candidates for that office in the November election, John Sullivan and Roger Brown. Jason Krise, aide for state Rep. Tina Pickett, was also in attendance.

Also included in the introductions were William Ransom, III, President of the Sayre Historical Society; Sherman Wooden, President of the Center for Anti-Slavery Studies in Montrose; Sylvia Wilson, Emeritus Board Member of the Bradford County Historical Society and past editor of The Settler; Beryl Cleary, Emeritus Board Member of the Bradford County Historical Society; Carolyn Russell, Emeritus Board Member of the Bradford County Historical Society; Don Hunt, President of the Board of the Tioga Point Museum; Valerie Jacoski, Director of the Tioga Point Museum; Melanie Norton, Curator and First Vice President of the Sullivan County Historical Society; Mary Skillings, President of the Wyalusing Valley Museum; Mark Madill, Wyalusing Valley Museum Trustee; Joyce Tice, Tri-Counties Genealogy and History Site; Matt Carl, Board President of the LeRoy Heritage Museum, and Robert Veleker, President of the Board of French Azilum, Inc.

President Jones followed with a brief overview of the previous year, most of it covered in the program brochure for the meeting. Heading the highlights was the hiring of Matt Carl as full-time Managing Curator. Carl has been the featured speaker at the 2006 annual meeting when he spoke on Laquin and Barclay Mountain: "He's young, he's bright and he has gotten so much accomplished since he has been in the position," the President reported.

Other highlights mentioned by the President were: a mention of a new book soon to be published entitled, Barclay Mountain—A History, compiled and edited by Guy and Marti Abell with assistance by Henry Farley and Matt Carl. Fifty copies have already been pre-sold for the book that should be available to the public shortly; work continues on a detailed Policy & Procedures Manual. Susan Miller is in charge of that effort and chairs the ad hoc committee. "As we continue to grow and add more resources, we found we didn't always have a clear policy or procedure," Jones explained, and the website continues to be expanded, including an email list that continues to lengthen.

The recipients of the two major awards bestowed annually by the historical society—the Leo E. Wilt Historian of the Year Award and the Clement F. Heverly Award for Outstanding Service—were announced and awards presented. Guy and Marti Abell were the joint winners of the Wilt award for their outstanding work on preparing the book, Barclay Mountain—A History, from the extensive data and manuscripts from the collection of the late Dr. James S. Smith. "Guy and Marti did an excellent job, and this fall we will have a history of Barclay Mountain that will thrill those with an interest in that area," the President stated.

The Clement Award for 2007 was presented to the Tioga Point Museum, with Valerie Jacoski and Don Hunt accepting the award for that organization. Aside from the museum's extensive collection of historical objects, documents and books and its impressive archives, Tioga Point was lauded for its positive impact on other historical museums and archives in the county, particularly "Past Perfect" software it introduced to its fellow museums, a number of which purchased the program for cataloguing purposes. "The Tioga Point Museum has made strides in reaching out to the community," said Jones before presenting the award. "Visitorship has doubled, educational programs reach over 1,300 students yearly, and the museum has begun to host guest speakers.

A special, surprise award was presented to a very special trustee, Lois Crandell, who is also Treasurer and Recording Secretary. Lois devotes hundreds of hours each year to the Historical Society, working on a variety of tasks, from securing funding to making sure everything is professional, clean and orderly. "Lois is truly a remarkable volunteer, and board members are volunteers," Jones reported, "spending long hours without pay, dedicated to an organization that they believe in and whose efforts develop the day-to-day governance of the activities of the Bradford County Historical Society."

Following the President's overview, Lynn Pliske, Chairperson of the Volunteer Committee, offered a roll call of volunteers whose service had been so invaluable in 2006-07, with volunteers listed in the program.

Matt Carl was then called upon to present his first annual Curator's Report, which was also printed in the program.

Finally, Robert Veleker was introduced as the speaker for the evening. Veleker spoke on French Azilum and how it came into being, focusing on its history between 1793 and 1803 and putting it into historical perspective with what was going on in the rest of the world and nation during that time in history.

We have traveled around the county this year in THE SETTLER. February's issue was all about the Hawes Toy Factory in Towanda in the area known as "Toytown." The issue contains many photos of the products made at the factory so one can definitely identify a toy from "Toytown" through the photos included.

Then we traveled to Monroeton with an issue filled with Carol Rockwell Sullivan's remembrances of her family the Rockwell's and spending time in Monroeton. Carol's remembrances also have photographs that give the reader such a nice view of life in Monroeton in the 1920's and 30's along with the Rockwell genealogy that she included in her work.

In September we traveled to Canton, Minnequa, Peter Herdic, "Queen Mab" and Casper Weiss, Crockett Lodge and lots of neat photos make up this issue and in November our issues will be about Loyalists.

Much of the data used to prepare this years quarterlies was from donations to the museum. I have gotten into the habit of checking each week to see what has been donated as I have found so much that is worthy of being included in a settler and think it is a good way to keep the reader interested in the museum and our holdings. I look forward to another successful year in 2009 and ask that if you have an article, photograph or just a story that you feel should be included in a future issue to contact me at the museum. This was our fifty sixth year of publication and even though it seems that ideas are slow to come they do and we continue to have an interesting and informative historical periodical.

Library Committee

Mary Neiley
Chairman

This past year the Society has retained the services of Denise Golden to log into Past Perfect all data that has been donated to the Society. Past Perfect is a computer software program designed to track all material housed at the society. Many gifts are donated each year and to ensure their presence at the society all items are entered into this program. This year alone 272 hours have been devoted to entering data.

This past year the library has received and catalogued many yearbooks. We are very excited to collect all yearbooks from schools within the county. These are very valuable tools for future reference as our names will be with our picture. Come into the library and check out your former schoolmates and ancestors. We presently are looking for books named the Lesonian from the former LeRaysville School. The Lesonian was not published after 1955 as the consolidation of the schools became the Northeast Bradford Joint School system. This is a very exciting project for the Society in the collection of yearbooks and hope to see you soon.

Remember the new coined phrase "stayvacation" with the higher prices of traveling bring the kids and learn about our own history! Think of the projects that can be accomplished right in the heart of Bradford County.

Special Events

Ceíl Maynard
Chairman

The 2007 Christmas Tree Gala was a success. There were sixteen trees and items for the silent auction donated, eight displays for the guests viewing pleasure, four gifts in kind and six prizes for drawings. Ticket sales exceeded the previous year.

The St. Patrick's Day Gala was held on March 13, 2008 and featured a variety of food with entertainment by Pat Kane.

Planning is well underway for the 2008 Christmas Tree Gala and we are expecting a great evening. Plenty of food, a silent auction, and the annual Christmas tree auction are only some of the features scheduled for this years event. Be sure to mark December 4, 2008 on your calendar!

We appreciate everyone who gives of their time as a volunteer at the Bradford County Historical Society. Many projects have been completed or are ongoing because of the effort put forth by these people.

Some of these projects include an index of our 1858 Bradford County map, a computer database of all photos in the historical society collection, organizing the post-card collection by town and placing them in new albums, placing archival material in new acid free folders and boxes, compiling an inventory of the Odd Fellows and Rebekeh Lodge record books, and many more.

Several of our volunteers work diligently on answering research letters.

Following are volunteers (besides board members) who donated their time this year. An asterisk is placed next to the name of each person who served 50 hours or more.

On May 1, a volunteer luncheon was held in the society Great Room and featured a picnic lunch. Each participant received a potted flower and several shared an interesting quotation that had been passed down through their family.

*"You, as a member of this Society, are now asked to do a very small thing for your Society.
 Get just one new member. It will be easy if you will show your prospect a few back issues of The Settler.*

*"If each of you in Bradford County will do this service for your Society, we will have nearly 900
 new members.*

*CAN WE COUNT ON YOU?
 DO IT TODAY.*

"All we ask is just one new member, but if you can get more than one, our thanks will be the greater."
